

COMPLETE THE PICTURE

Draw and color the missing part of the body and the background scenery.

Describe to your child how the limb will change after the treatment and what he or she will be able to do differently.

